Attention! Sound Off has a new telephone number and calling hours

Our new number is (734) 729-4000 ext. 206. You may now call seven days a week, 24 hours a day. Better yet, our new digital answering machine actually works.

Picture of ghetto girl costumes offended new Belleville resident

I'm calling to comment on the picture on the front of the Belleville Enterprise. Being a new Belleville resident, I feel that it's insulting.

It has two Caucasian girls posing as ghetto girls at a downtown Halloween festivity.

How do you think people would feel if you had two African-American girls posing as white trash people? How would that go over?

You endorsed a candidate that's not even running - 'nuff said

By the time you get this Sound Off, the elections will be over. I hope that you will consider printing this because I want you to stop endorsing candidates.

Do you want to know why? It's because you don't endorse right.

Mark Lukawitz is not running for Romulus council. You have endorsed him and he is not even running. 'Nuff said.

Watch out if you can't keep your finger to yourself when you drive

I dedicate this to the lady who gave me the one-finger salute on Nov. 11 on Wayne Road. I don't know what I did to tick you off, but you shouldn't be doing that.

The next person you do that to may have a weapon.

Changing of the guard

Romulus man's murder labeled hate crime

Romulus police charged Taylor resident William Koss with first-degree murder in the death of Walter Cunningham. Cunningham, 49, had been missing since October 19. His body was discovered in his Romulus apartment on Halloween.

Koss, 33, was arrested at a Detroit halfway house where he was being held because of a larceny charge in the city of Wayne.

He told Romulus police that he only intended to rob Cunningham. In the process he took his wallet, credit cards and vehicle and then allegedly killed the victim.

Sean Kosofsky, a spokesperson for the Triangle Foundation, said the case has all the earmarks of an anti-gay crime. Kosofsky believes Koss picked-up Cunningham knowing he was gay and would be an easy target for robbery, because he was expecting a sexual encounter.

A preliminary will be held in Romulus District Court on November 21. Koss is currently being held in the Wayne County Jail.

Burek, Guin memorialized

At a recent city council meeting, Councilwoman Debbie Romak requested the city pass a "memorial resolution" recognizing the death of Francesc Guinn and Bob Burek, two long-time residents of Romulus.

Burek was an important member of the Romulus commercial community. He had owned Bob's Cardshop, a place where Romak's son became interested in baseball cards.

At one time, he also owned a Dairy Queen at the border of Romulus and Van Buren Township. His Dairy Queen was a very popular place for both the city and the township.

Said Romak of his personality, "He had a quite a sense of humor."

Mayor Pro-Tem Randolph Gear expressed his sympathy. "He was a good friend, had a wonderful establishment." Burek passed away on October 24. He was 61.

Francesc Guinn was a neighbor of Romak, on one of the oldest streets in Romulus. She planted flowers all around her neighborhood, had a natural "green thumb" and according to Romak, "She could take a stick and grow it into little flowers, she was just a great neighbor." Guinn also passed away on October 24, at the age of 78.

The memorial resolution passed unanimously and the city has come to recognize the deaths of these two influential residents. "Our condolences go out to both families," said Gear.

Shiloh to close Romulus facility

In a letter to the Romulus City Council on October 24, Shiloh Industries announced it would be closing its Romulus facility.

Located at 4800 Inkster Road, the company built the facility in 1996 as part of its "blanking division". Blanking is the process of forming iron into different shapes. Shiloh performed this task for the auto industry and other businesses.

According to a spokesperson for Shiloh Industries, "We don't have enough revenue to run the business, we have to downsize." They have issued a warrant notice to their employees and will very shortly begin the process of selling the property, liquidating the assets and laying off the workers.

Shiloh's second location in Canton will remain open however it will not be able to take employees from the Romulus location. "Canton couldn't absorb the employees," said the spokesperson.

At a recent city council meeting, members discussed Shiloh's Industrial Facilities Tax Exemption Certificate. The tax abatement was designed for businesses that are relocating or moving their facility.

Councilwoman Romak raised concern over the city's present tax abatement agreement and suggested the council change the wording in case other businesses decide to close due to the low point in the economy. The council agreed to change the abatement and expressed their regret in seeing Shiloh close its doors.

Shiloh will cease operations on December 7.

New firm to take over noise abatement program

A glimmer of hope may be in sight for Romulus residents who are eligible for remodeling work from Wayne County's noise abatement program.

The Wayne County Commission recently approved a $9.5 million contract to C & S Engineering, to essentially take over the noise abatement services that have floundered in bureaucratic red tape for years. The Syracuse, New York firm has a contract that runs through October 31, 2004.

According to the task force that recommended C & S, the firm is an "experienced, national company" qualified to revamp the problem-ridden noise abatement program.

The noise abatement program was established to assist homeowners that live near the airport by either purchasing their property, assisting their move to a location further from the airport, or by performing work on the home to sound-proof them.

Over the years several hundred Romulus homeowners have taken advantage of the sound-insulation portion of the program that equips homes with highly rated sound-insulated windows; new doors that block sound; and insulation placed in exterior walls.

Many homes have also received central air conditioning units and aluminum siding.

Vote count wrong

THE ROMULUS ROMAN mistakenly reported that Romulus City Council candidate Mike Wojtylo received 1715 votes in last Tuesday's election. In actuality, Wojtylo garnered 1763 votes finishing eighth, one spot away from winning a council seat.

Who will take Lambert's seat?

The Romulus Board of Education will be accepting applications to fill a vacancy on the Board of Education.

Applicants should prepare a one page letter declaring an intent to be considered for the Board and explain reasons why they felt that they could be submitted to executive Secretary Carole Bales at the Board of Education Office, 36540 Grant Road by 12:00 noon on Tuesday, November 20th.

New Romulus Mayor Alan Lambert cuts ribbon at the new 7-11 store gas station located at Middlebelt and Northline. Lambert praised the 7-11 officials present and indicated that he would immediately pursue additional retail businesses to begin to locate in Romulus. ## Local couple celebrates their Golden Anniversary

By THEOLA JONES
MCN Special Writer

Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Cain celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The landmark celebration was hosted by the Cain's children: Huford Foskey, Lettie Cain, Lynette Cain, and Lynwood Cain and was held at the beautiful Joy Manor in Westland.

Some 14 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren were present at the ceremony and to pay tribute to a loving couple.

Extended family members also joined in honoring a couple who exemplify love, caring, and devotion. Among the honored guests were Hilda Tucker, Maria Gomez and family, Louise Dalton, Johanna Jones, Willie Blassingame, Ahmed Ali, and Ingrid Duner.

Program participants also included Cheryl Bradford, Pastor Anthony Eddy, Alita Moore, Lettie and Lynette Cain, and Lynwood Cain, Jr., who was the very capable master of ceremonies.

How do you summarize 50 years together?

How do you pick out one memory over a lifetime of memories?

The couple has been an exemplary role model for their family and others to emulate. Their compassion and commitment to family life will serve as a beacon to others.

The guests enjoyed a delicious dinner. Friends and family members spoke lovingly of Mr. and Mrs. Cain.

The couple later expressed their gratitude for the many expressions of love extended by the large number of guests in attendance.

Coats for Children program gets underway

A unique partnership of six organizations has come together to ensure that every Inkster child has a warm coat for the approaching winter season.

Inkster-Edison's Baylor-Woodson Elementary School, located at 28865 Carlyle Ave., will be the site for the "Coats for Children" family event, which will take place Nov. 17.

Parents or guardians of children needing winter coats may pre-register their children and accompany them to Baylor-Woodson from 5 to 7 p.m. on Saturday.

Entertainment and refreshments will be provided.

There is limited transportation for families from the Lemoyne Gardens, Demby and Parkside communities.

"It's exciting to see a diverse group of organizations coming together for a common purpose such as helping our children," said Jill Berry, Outreach representative from the Plymouth United Assembly of God congregation.

"Teamsters Local 299 and our partner organizations are busy collecting coats so that every child can dress warmly this winter," Berry stressed.

Other partners in this unique initiative include Bethany United Church, Starfish Family Services and Otis Spunkmeyer.

For more information or to register a child, please call 734-595-1425 or 734-467-5697.

Individuals who wish to donate clean coats in good condition should call or contact Jonathan Royce at Starfish Family Services at 734-727-3153.

Town Hall meeting scheduled for Nov. 29

Few will argue that the city streets need repairs.

But how should taxpayers pay for the repairs? By a tax levy or a millage? Or should they just forget it and hope the city wins a lottery?

Also, which streets should the administration target first?

These and other questions may surface during a planned Town Hall meeting scheduled for 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 29, at the Booker T. Dozier Parks and Recreation Complex.

Mayor Hilliard Hampton, Jr. and members of city council have discussed road repairs but are in a quandary about how to pay for the necessary work.

Council asked the city's administration to set a meeting date so that the legislative and executive bodies can question citizens about the proposed street improvement plan. Council wishes to discuss and make a decision on the "Comprehensive Road Improvement Plan" including which city streets should be targeted for repairs.

In addition there is a question about how much millage the taxpayers are willing to tax themselves to support the improvements.

If you have any thoughts or wish to offer your input, plan to attend the Nov. 29 meeting.

Temple celebrates anniversary

Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church will celebrate its annual anniversary on Nov. 18.

Clara McGee, who is serving as the program's chairperson, and O. Earl Hardison, the co-chairpersons, said that the congregation has selected as its anniversary theme "Christians Being Made Aware That It's Not the Building, It's the Body."

The Rev. Terrell A. Jackson serves as pastor of Temple Christian. For further information, please contact the church offices.

Arab, black women to meet

Arab and African American women will come together to address the importance of ethnic and religious tolerance in post-September 11 America at "Season of Unity: Forging Bonds of Friendship between Arab and African American Women in Western Wayne County."

The meeting will take place at 6 p.m. on Nov. 19, at the administrative offices of the Arab Community Center for Community, Economic and Social Services (ACCESS). ACCESS offices are located at 2651 Saulino Court in Dearborn.

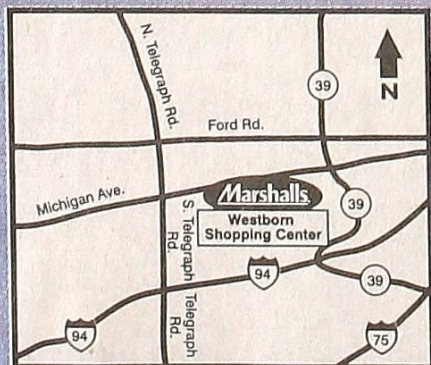

For further information, please contact Kim Trent at 313-657-4759.

NEWS FROM THE CITY OF WAYNE

Accused bank robber to stand trial

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

A 29-year-old Belleville man who was arrested on fraud charges in the City of Wayne and was wanted by the FBI for questioning in two area bank robberies, was bound over last week to the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice for arraignment on fraud charges over $1,000 but not more than $20,000.

The defendant, Tony Slaughter, used a friend's photo and document to purchase a pick up from a local auto dealer, according to Wayne police. When the alleged deception was discovered, police obtained a warrant for Slaughter's arrest.

Slaughter was arrested in Oakland County Circuit Court where he faced an unrelated felony charge.

Later, Wayne police learned that Slaughter was wanted in Dearborn for bank robbery. After the defendant's initial appearance in the 29th District Court, Slaughter was handed over to Dearborn to answer to the charges in that city.

Slaughter appeared before Judge Carolyn Archbold on Nov. 7 and, after a brief hearing, was bound over to Circuit Court to stand trial on the "false pretense" charge. His bond of $10,000 was continued by Judge Archbold.

The defendant's arraignment on the information is scheduled for 9 a.m. on Nov. 21 in the Frank Murphy Hall of Justice.

If Slaughter, who has a lengthy criminal record which includes two felony convictions, is found guilty of the latest allegation, he could face up to 12 years behind bars. The convictions of bank robbery could put the Belleville resident behind bars for life.

Library to host local author

Wayne-raised author Steven Lee Climer will appear at the Wayne Public Library to read his latest novel and donate copies of his books.

Climer's appearance is scheduled for 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Nov. 19.

Climer, born and raised in Wayne, will be reading from and signing copies of his latest novel, "Soul Temple."

"I've been living in the Westland-Canton area for six years now," Climer said.

"I absolutely love it here. Being asked to speak at the Wayne Public Library really means a lot to me."

In return for this honor, the critically-acclaimed author will be donating copies of his books to the library in support of literacy.

"Literacy, to me, is a form of magic," says Climer, whose novels and short stories often feature characters with more than a passing knowledge of that supernatural word.

"It's magic that's within everyone's grasp. Reading lets you smell, taste, feel and hear another world."

"Literacy is not just about the mechanics of reading, it's about really hearing what the author is telling you through his or her story."

Climer teaches English at Davenport University, and works for Fry Multimedia, one of the top 20 Internet firms, in Ann Arbor. He's a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and briefly studied for his Ph.D. at Wayne State University.

Democratic Club to distribute food

With the unemployment rolls increasing daily, the need for food and housing is multiplying algebraically in western Wayne County and the state.

In an effort to help those who need food locally, the Metro Wayne Democratic Club will be distributing surplus food on Tuesday.

"We have found that, because of the number of people who have been laid off, there has been an increasing number of individuals and families that are in desperate need of food," said Cliff Johnson, president of the club. "We need volunteers to help with the food distribution. It's a worthy cause and we hope to enlist the help of our community."

The Wayne Democratic Club will be at the Korean Village 11 a.m. to hand out food. Then, shortly afterward, club members will travel to the Wayne Senior Towers, on Sims Avenue, to offer food to those in need.

At 12:45 p.m. on Tuesday, the Dems will be at the Odd Fellows Hall on Glenwood and Venoy Road.

Johnson may be reached by dialing 729-8881.

Rep. Rivers holds talks in Wayne

Representative Lynn Rivers will provide a legislative update and discuss the recent current events on the war against terrorism and in Afghanistan when she meets with residents on Friday.

The U. S. Representative, whose district includes Wayne, has scheduled a coffee hour at 8:30 a.m. at the City Bakery and Cafe.

The restaurant is located at 35161 East Michigan Avenue.

For directions or further information, please contact Deborah Johnson in Rivers' District Office. Johnson may be reached at 734-485-3741.

Voters choose an Arab-American, a police officer, and a lawyer as mayors

Voters in Western Wayne went to the polls last week and elected an Arab American, a police officer and an attorney to the highest positions in their respective communities.

While all media attention was focused on the City of Dearborn where Arab-American Abed Hammoud was challenging Mayor Michael Guido, a similar scenario was taking place next door in the City of Wayne.

Whereas it was generally thought Hammoud had no chance against Guido, Lebanese-American Abdul Haidous was running neck and neck with incumbent mayor, Robert Dickerson in Wayne.

And when the votes were counted Guido had won by 79% in a city where Arab-Americans number close to 20% of the population. Haidous, however, squeezed by Dickerson, where Arab-Americans only number a handful, and thus became the first Arab-American to win a city's top office in southeast Michigan.

Haidous, 57, and owner of Al's Friendly Market in Wayne, has served several terms as a city councilman. He moved here from Lebanon in 1959, married, and had five children graduate from Wayne-Westland Schools.

He beat a formidable and popular mayor in Dickerson, because Haidous has been a fixture longer in the community and worked harder at campaigning. In the end there was very little fallout from the wave of anti-Arab sentiment that has swept the nation. Haidous won comfortably with 54% of the vote.

Voters in Romulus evidently thought it was time for a change. They voted for police officer Alan Lambert over longtime mayor, William Oakley by a 60-40 margin.

Lambert isn't just any police officer. He is president of the Romulus Board of Education and has served several terms on the city council. In other words, he is no spring chicken when it comes to city politics.

But he isn't an Oakley either. Oakley has either been mayor or on the fringe of Romulus politics for four decades. However, his reserved demeanor and tight-fisted ways turned off to many people over time. Lambert was elected because voters want someone who will listen, and not dictate to them how things will be.

Westland chose attorney and council president, Sandy Cicirelli over city councilman and reformist Richard LeBlanc.

Apparently voters were not ready to accept the wholesale changes LeBlanc had promised after enduring the recall of two councilmen, and subsequent resignation of two more just a year ago.

LeBlanc received the exact percentage of votes that he did in the primary, which means the bulk of the Emery Price voters sided with Cicirelli. Cicirelli was able to forge a coalition of city employees, senior citizens and union members, to beat LeBlanc's populist, grassroots movement.

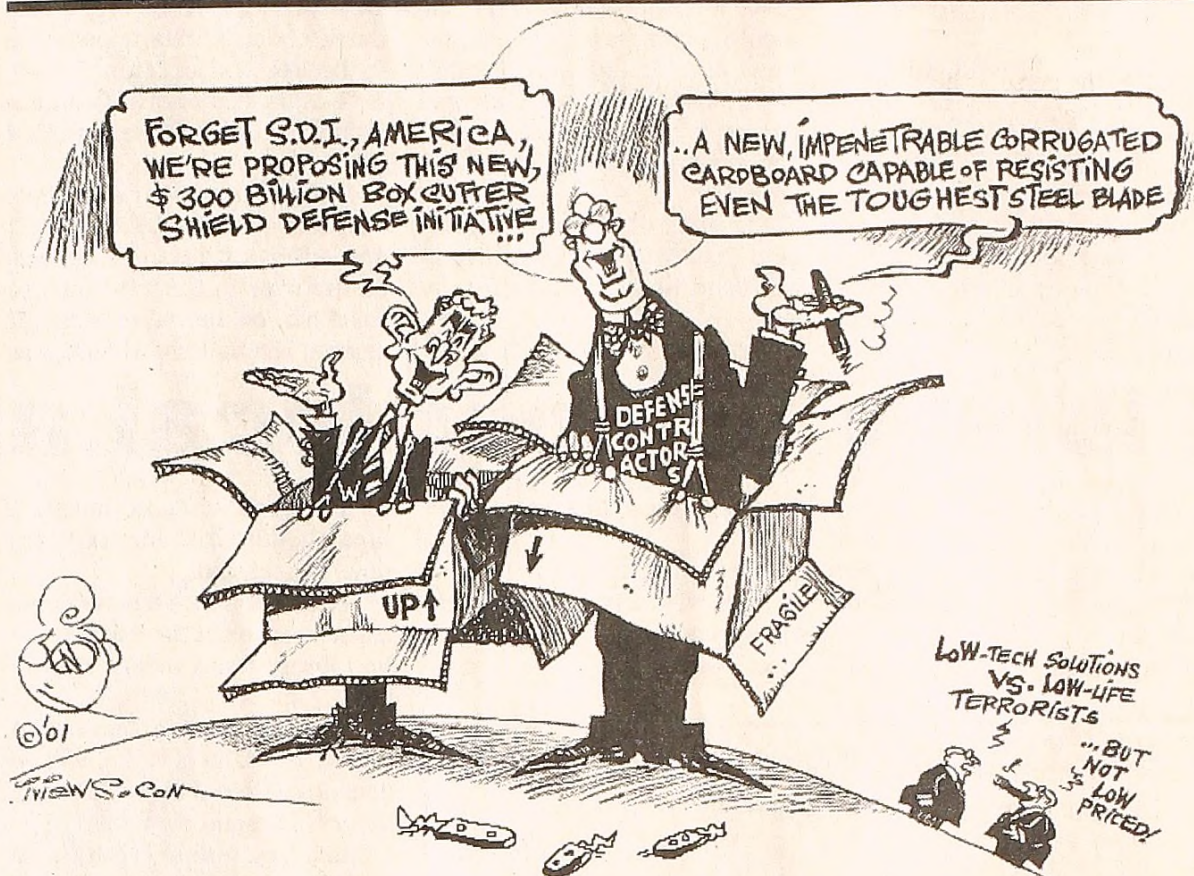

But the election is only the beginning of an extremely tough mission for Cicirelli. At the same time they voted for her, residents resoundingly defeated funding for the incinerator and overwhelmingly supported the "elected clerk" proposal.

The incinerator issue is going to create some rough moments for Cicirelli. LeBlanc campaigned hard against it, and the voters certainly agreed. Cicirelli will have to do an about-face or run the risk of angering many of her supporters.

But there are other issues that will continue to make Westland a veritable minefield. Police cars, new City Hall, a diminishing budget, etc.etc will stretch the new Mayor's negotiating skills to the max.

Mike's musings
Mike Wilcox

Here come de tax collector

It has been said, "Necessity is the mother of invention."

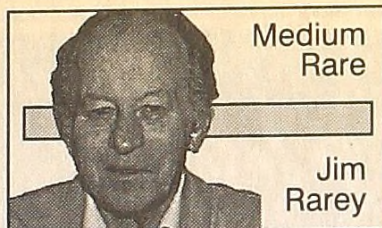

That is being evidenced in the Michigan Legislature as it seeks to find new ways to raise revenue without appearing to be raising taxes.

In response to the reduced tax revenues resulting from the slow-down in the economy, the governor has already instituted severe cuts in expenditures for the next fiscal year. Department heads are screaming bloody murder and the legislature is responding.

All kinds of special assessments are being proposed or increased. One example is SB 808, which has already passed the senate. It deals with fines, "costs" and assessments on traffic violations.

The bill sets out minimum and maximum "costs" to be assessed, along with fines for traffic offenses including parking violations.

The one exception to the maximums is violations involving a "commercial" vehicle where there is no maximum. The statute reads, "the judge, district court referee, or district court magistrate shall summarily tax and determine the costs of the action, which shall not be limited to the costs taxable in ordinary civil actions, and may include all expenses, direct and indirect... up to the entry of the judgment." So much for a friendly business climate.

Medium Rare

Then there are the special assessments. SB 808 would add a $5 charge to every traffic case where a fine was levied to be remitted to the state to be put in the Michigan justice training fund. Another bill (SB 607) would increase from $5 to $10 a charge on traffic violations for the Secondary Road Patrol and Training Program.

Another feature of SB 607 would charge ordinary traffic violators a $5 fee to help pay counties for incarceration of convicted felons.

As more and more jurisdictions "downgrade" misdemeanors to "civil infractions" it should be remembered that most constitutional protections are not available when charged with a civil infraction. There is no right to an attorney, a jury trial, confronting of witnesses, and there is no appeal of the judgment.

There would most likely be a tremendous outcry from the public if this extra revenue were raised through an increase in the income tax or sales tax. But the legislature has found a way to let the judges (and magistrates and referees) take the heat.

But, after all, isn't it just the lawbreakers that are getting soaked? Reflect on that when you get a ticket (charge of a civil infraction) for playing your radio too loud, letting your grass grow too high or jaywalking.

Civil infractions have become a revenue measure sold as a trade-off of loss of constitutional rights for no possibility of jail time. However, with the state supreme court now saying you can be sent to jail (for contempt of court) for not paying your fine (plus costs and assessments) at the time of judgment, all that is left is the loss of constitutional rights.

Writers, please sign your letters

To the editor:

I read your paper as soon as it comes out. I've read critics' notes also and too agree with some who say people should sign their names. What do they have to fear?

As you know, I've written often and always signed my name. I don't mind anyone knowing my viewpoints.

I also expect honesty from those running for an office and not criticizing what others do.

I believe nothing political should be in the council meetings or someone saying, what not to do when they do it themselves and I believe everyone knows who that is.

Just listen closely to what is said. I tape it so I can play it back to double check on things I may have missed and not understood at first.

No councilperson on council should butt in when another is talking about something and try to tell their viewpoint and overrule another.

Let's keep it clean and try to put in office those that haven't been involved, in any way, with post ones who were spoiling our city.

Sincerely,

Betty Savage,
Westland

Election victory was easy as pie

I recently read a novel set in the beginning of the last century during the Great Age of Magic. In Carter Beats the Devil, the hero, the historical Charles Carter, was accused of stealing other magicians' tricks, much like a Westland mayoral candidate might accuse an opponent of stealing original ideas.

"There are few illusions that are truly original," Carter replied. "It's a matter of presentation. In other words, I didn't invent sugar or flour, but I bake a mean apple pie."

In those days, before the advent of action movies with spectacular special effects, the action was on the vaudeville stage whenever an illusionist appeared.

A master illusionist, such as Carter the Great, could conjure up a roaring lion or a sulphureous devil, could levitate audience members into the air, where he could saw them in half — no magician's boxes for Carter.

Just as there were no magician's boxes, only ballot boxes, for Westland Mayor-elect Sandra Cicirelli last week when she won a decisive victory with her skillful presentations.

However, instead of conjuring lions, Cicirelli came up with skillful presentations of comfortable policies for a city that had been upended by a turbulent recall and abandoned by an absentee mayor.

"Residents responded to my message of unity," Cicirelli said. "People said that with the recall over it was time to get back to normal and to get on with city business."

So instead of presenting whiz-bang ideas, she offered the illusion of normalcy: an on-the-job mayor, basic services, and a new ice skating rink.

But an illusion, nevertheless, because the Age of Terror is about as normal as anthrax or crashing airplanes.

Vantastic
Ivan Helfman

Councilman Richard LeBlanc, Cicirelli's opponent, begged to differ with Cicirelli's attribution of her victory to her message of unity. He attributed her victory to her presentation of a different illusion, a vision of LeBlanc committing to build an expensive new city hall and new fire station administration building if elected.

"In response to a question from the Observer, I had said that a new city hall was not dead, it was delayed," he said.

To try to counter Cicirelli's presentation of his city hall position, he presented his position on cable TV and door-to-door while campaigning in the city's neighborhoods. But the magic wasn't there. It was with Cicirelli and the police and firefighters presenting illusions on her behalf.

Of course, illusions are the stuff of which columns are made, too. So let me conjure up my own devil to present one reason why Cicirelli won. That devil is Bob Thomas, who slowed down LeBlanc's momentum by disbanding the city's tax increment financing authority in the Central City Parkway area and throwing in the towel with proposed new $20 community center. This left LeBlanc without a popular issue, only flour and sugar without a recipe.

Meanwhile, Cicirelli had a popular issue, take-home cars for Westland's cops. Knowing that Westland voters value their local cops more than they care about the city's finances, she skillfully blended the issue into a batter and baked everybody's favorite apple pie.

Hope council hecklers got negativity out of their systems

I'm looking forward to a new era in Westland with our new mayor and city council.

The new team deserves a chance to take a new look at some old problems and make our city better without having to deal with the hecklers' disruptions.

I hope that the hecklers were able to get all the negativity out of their systems at the last meeting so that the council can concentrate on city business.

Caller, letter-writer defends Sound Off's anonymity policy

I usually prefer to send my comments in letter form to the editor but because the "Sound Off" section has been under attack lately I decided to use this space.

SOUND OFF EXTRA

As long as I can remember, this newspaper has had a "Sound Off" section. It is a knife that cuts both ways, allowing people to be honest or dishonest without being held accountable. So many praises were spoken regarding The Observer's policy of not printing letters unless they were signed, I seem to remember accusations towards The Observer regarding censorship in favor of issues that paper supported.

Even my own letters to the editor of The Observer have been edited without my knowledge or permission and without the The Observer stating that the letter was edited. None of my letters in the Eagle have ever been edited or items omitted. When the editor changes the original it is very clearly stated at the end of the letter.

I also want to bring up a very important point, what is to stop a dishonest person from using a false name in a letter sent to the editor of the The Observer? Remember Ray Blow? Just because a name appears at the end of a letter does not necessarily mean it is more credible.

I would prefer the newspapers continue their job in the way that they have, including the "Sound Off" section and allow the people to decide its credibility. It doesn't take a rocket scientist to figure out that some of the "Sound Offs" printed are outright lies.

County wave pool would create a summer dope market

The Wayne County aquatics park that Canton wants to build at Ford and Ridge roads could become the summertime Wayne County dope market.

Open to everybody in Wayne

County, dealers will be able to enter the park, the woods, and the rest-room stalls. There will be ten hidden places for illicit activity for every security guard or on-site Canton police officer.

When Taylor and Westland and Detroit send their teenage gangs and dope hustlers to Canton, will these cities also send their narcotics officers? I don't think so.

Seems like the aquatics park could be a major investment for trouble.

Caller not pleased with Westland voters' choice of new mayor

Westland will have to watch out again. We know have Cicirelli backed by Cox, Griffin, and Pickering. They're all coming back to haunt us. She's also backed by Thomas.

Watch out Westland.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

LeBlanc has 'too much class to resort to such trash,' says his wife

To the editor:

This is to the person who wrote about the spineless coward sending attack fliers about Cicirelli. It just goes to show that you didn't have the facts straight. You never called to ask if he put that piece of trash out, DID YOU? Richard's home phone number is in the book! Always has been and always will be. Anyone that knows Richard knows he has WAY TOO MUCH CLASS to resort to such trash.

I also received one in the mail. I don't think he would have wasted a stamp to mail one to his own family. This flier cost somebody a good amount of money to put out. I know, we've done many political mailings and they were all clean, I might add!

Richard ran a good CLEAN campaign as he said he would. He should be very proud of himself that he did not resort to such mud flinging and lies to win his campaign. At least he can still look at himself in a mirror with no regrets or guilty feelings. If that is what it takes to win a campaign, I say it's not worth it.

I know his family and many Westland residents are proud of his HONESTY and willingness to help out many of them. I have just one question for you. Are you also a spineless coward with no backbone, as you put it? I DO NOT recall seeing a name signed to your trashy letter! Richard did not sign this trash because he DID NOT put it out. He signs the things that he mails out.

I like many other residents am very proud of Richard and am very sorry you believed these lies without getting your facts straight. Oh and for the record anyone who believed the one about him raising your taxes to build a new city hall should have watched MEET THE CANDIDATES to clear up the lies about that and a pension.

Yes, Sandy will get her $40,000 pension and Richard would not get even half that for eight years. So ask yourself again, what kind of argument is that? So in closing, I unlike you will sign my name, just as he always does.

Proud to be his wife!
Cheryl LeBlanc

Supporters thanked

To the editor:

I would like to say thank you to the voters of Westland for their overwhelming support of my candidacy for city council. It has been a wonderful experience and one I will never, ever forget. Running for public office takes hard work and demands attention to a variety of details. To balance the commitments to home, work, and the campaign required the help and cooperation of my entire family and I very much appreciate their love and support.

I also appreciate each and every person who displayed one of those green and white signs in their yards; I can tell you it was really a kick to drive around town and spot so many.

To everyone who helped in any way I can't say thank you enough, it takes many hands (and feet) to get the job done.

Walking the neighborhoods, through several seasons was a tough job, but a pleasurable one, as it not only allowed me the chance to meet with the residents I also got to see some beautiful homes. My own garden was rather neglected this summer, so I welcomed the chance to take in the beauty of other's yards.

And last but not least, to Richard LeBlanc, a dedicated public servant and running mate, I want to publicly say thank you for your efforts on behalf of the citizens of Westland. I was proud to work on your campaign and it was an honor to have leaders such as yourself, Glenn Anderson, Jim Godbout, and Eileen DeHart support mine.

We always hope that our candidate will come out on top, but many elections will attest to the fact that the person we might feel is best does not always win. The main thing is that citizens do not become discouraged and continue to stay involved in the affairs of their government.

Sincerely,
Cheryl Graunstadt

Support Westland's new mayor, LeBlanc says

To the editor:

From a grateful Councilman to a wonderful community:

Thank you to the Westland community for support of my campaign for election as mayor for the city of Westland during the general election. Although the results were not as hoped, we are grateful for the opportunity to have made it as far as we did.

Several other thanks are also necessary: To the dozens of volunteers, groups and organizations, to the Westland Eagle and other newspapers, to the local UAW officials and members, to the Ford Motor Company/Visteon Corporation, to my close friends, elected officials and most especially my family. I say thank you from the bottom of my heart. Campaigning for public office is difficult and it takes a toll on relationships. I'm proud of your conduct and even more so of your resolve.

During my concession speech, I asked campaign volunteers and friends to fully support the new mayor and city council. I also extend that same advice to the other Westland residents, for the city will be faced with new challenges and opportunities as we explore methods to address significant financial concerns and other issues.

Regards,
Councilman Richard LeBlanc

COME LITTLE CHILDREN CENTER

Today's parents are becoming more and more aware of the importance of a quality day care and pre-school. If you want your child to have a planned, active, well-balanced day, enroll them at COME LITTLE CHILDREN CENTER located at 45050 Warren in Canton, phone (734) 455-4607. Although COME LITTLE CHILDREN CENTER is a catholic pre-school and day care, they welcome children of all religions. They are licensed by the State Department of Social Services and are a member of Archdiocese of Detroit school system. They accept children from 6 weeks to 12 years and offer daycare, pre-school, kindergarten and latchkey. Sending your child to COME LITTLE CHILDREN CENTER at a young age only prepares them better for their later school years, and life experiences. Children learn through active participation with hands-on experience through exploration, discovery and learning. COME LITTLE CHILDREN CENTER is divided into carefully structured activity areas. Children explore freely while supported and guided by teachers who are trained to help children make their own decisions, and mistakes. Activity is important, and planned exercise periods are scheduled throughout the day. If you would like to find out more information, or would like to see what this center has to offer just call (734) 455-4607. The writers of the 2001 Thanksgiving Business Review highly recommend this great facility where your children can learn and have fun, while making new friends.

Call (734) 459-5070 for an appointment.

HEALTHSOUTH®

Physical therapy has been around for thousands of years. Early Chinese and Roman civilizations used massage, water and heat to restore movement and relieve pain, and also as preventative health care. Physical therapists today are highly trained and educated specialists promoting beneficial human health through a variety of programs. Physical therapists must complete a 5-6 year college degree that emphasizes the biological and medical sciences. After licensing, physical therapists practice health care in hospitals, clinics, private practices, schools and industries. In the state of Michigan you must have a written prescription by a licensed physician, dentist or podiatrist before seeing a Physical Therapist. The therapists at HEALTHSOUTH REHABILITATION CENTER OF TAYLOR specialize in evaluating and treating a variety of orthopedic conditions. They range from neck and back pain, shoulder, hip, knee, foot, and ankle injuries, as well as work related injuries and hand therapy. HEALTHSOUTH OF

He's the Mann

Coach leads Vikings to back-to-back Mega hoops championships

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Inkster has annexed the Mega-Red domain to its hoops achievements.

The Vikings finished the Mega-Red Division with a perfect 12-0 record; they are 20-0 going into Monday's first round of the Class A district playoffs. During his two year tenure as head coach at Inkster High, Coach Dave Mann is yet to lose a game.

Although they jumped from the bottom rung to the top tier of the Mega Conference basketball world, Mann and the Vikings continue to dominate their conferences.

Mann's Vikings at Inkster High School captured the Gold Division girls' basketball title a year ago and, instead of the traditional gradual climb to the top of the conference's divisions - the conference has Mega-Red, Mega-White, Mega-Blue and Mega-Gold divisions, Mann opted to test his team against the best the Mega has to offer, and so far he has a perfect score.

The Vikings responded with an unblemished 20-0 season and the divisional title. Hence, Mann and Inkster become the first team and coach to ever win back-to-back championships in the Mega-Gold and the Mega-Red Divisions

"We are pleased with what we have accomplished," said Mann during a telephone interview on Monday. "But we have the playoffs ahead of us, and no one is going to allow us to rest on our laurels. Someone out there is just waiting to snap the streak.

"And if you don't think they will be gunning for us, think again."

Since taking over the Vikings a year ago, Mann has led Inkster to 40 consecutive victories. That streak is in jeopardy as Inkster, if it survives Monday's first round of playoff action at Clarenceville, would face the No. 1 ranked Class C team in the state this year - Detroit Benedictine.

Ironically, at least four of the Ravens played for Mann at Bishop Borgess three years ago. Mann left Borgess in 2000 to take his present position as athletic director and head girls' basketball coach at Inkster High.

Inkster wrapped up the regular season with a relatively easy, 66-42, victory over Taylor Truman. It was Truman that took the Vikings down to the wire in the first round before losing a cliffhanger.

And, the rematch appeared at first to be a rerun of the first encounter. Truman trailed only by a basket, 11-9, after the first period before Inkster's Laelah Qawee and Dominique Whitner fired up their team and led them to a 34-18 advantage at half-time.

Qawee drilled eight of her game high 16 and Whitner scored all of her seven points in the second period surge. Tiffany Evans also scored in double figures. She had 12.

Qawee shared high-scoring honors with Truman's Tiana Johnson who also scored 16 points.

The Vikings were near-perfect at the free throw line where they canned nine of 10 shots as compared to Truman's perfect four-for-four at the free throw line.

On Thursday, against a team that they easily repelled in the first round, the Vikings struggled to win a four-point decision (51-47) over an upset-minded Monroe. The Trojans led most of the first half as they edged their visitors 14-13 after one and increased its lead to 25-19 at the half.

The Vikings recovered after the break and, thanks to Tiffany Evan's six third period points, eliminated the deficit and went up, 34-33. Down to the final buzzer, Inkster never surrendered the lead again to their visitors.

Evans finished with a game high 13 points, while Keisha Young added 11.

Monroe placed two players in double figures. Ashley Schatzle had 14 and Terra Teague chalked up 11.

The Class C District Championship at Clarenceville High School will be decided at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Westland John Glenn dug a deep hole early and was buried by visiting Redford Catholic Central Friday night in a regional high school football playoff game.

Coach Chuck Gordon's Rockets spotted RCC 35-points over a span of three quarters, then frantically put together an unprecedented record-setting series that provided the host 18 points in the last 11 minutes of the game. All the Glenn TDs came in the wake of onside punt recoveries.

And even the diehard Glenn football fans could not recall anything like it.

Keith DeMolay, who has been Glenn's "statman" for more than a decade said he could not recall any Glenn team that recovered three consecutive onside kicks and scored after each recovery.

"It just hasn't happened," said DeMolay. "And I have not missed a Glenn game in ages. It was something to behold. You had to be there to really appreciate what happened. I for one will never forget the game."

The Westlanders ran off 24 successive plays in the final 11 minutes that stunned Catholic Central and their veteran coach Tom Mack who offered this comment only after his team posted the victory: "No one has ever done this to us before; and I hope no one ever repeats. It was incredible."

Down 35-0 with 11 left in their season, Glenn's Anthony Harrell recovered what was the first of three onside kicks. Glenn junior quarterback Brian Ceckiewicz teamed up with sophomore running back De'Anthony Granberry on a 32-yard touchdown pass that broke the proverbial ice and dissipated CC's hope of a shutout.

On the ensuing kickoff, the Rockets again tried an onside kick, and this time senior An-

With time running out, the Rockets had no option left but to again go to the onside kick against a team that knew what was coming but unbelievably couldn't avert it. The Glenn kick assembled a mass of bodies at midfield and when the officials got to the bottom, disbursed, it was Glenn that had possession. That third consecutive onside possession set a new Glenn record.

As in the first of the three TD plays, Ceckiewicz again went to Granberry, and this time Granberry caught a 26-yard pass that proved to be the Rockets' final TD of the 2001 season.

Catholic Central, coming off of a big win over Detroit King, continued its momentum against Glenn as the Shamrocks exploded to a 28-0 lead at half, and scored 35 unanswered points. CC added an early third period TD on a halfback pass to Ryan Wroblecki, who completed a 68-yard pass-run TD play to make it 35-0.

With 11:48 in the game, the Dr. Jeykell in Mr. Hyde came out to play. The transformed Glenn didn't surrender the ball to the Shamrocks until 2:01 left in the

Playoff jinx continues to follow Twisters

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

The post-season playoff jinx continues to haunt the Twisters and J. Glenn Brothers, the CEO of the semi-professional Football team.

After another outstanding regular season, the Twisters dropped a crushing 22-19 decision to the Central Ohio Lions in a game that decided the Lakeshore Football League Championship.

"I don't know what it is, but we just can't win the overall championship," moaned Brothers after the heart-breaking loss. "We came up short by three points, would you believe that?"

As anticipated, the battle for the coveted Lakeshore Conference crown was a war from the opening kickoff to the final whistle. One of the biggest crowds this season was on hand to watch the divisional champs fight it out for the conference championship at Central State University in southern Ohio.

The Twisters dominated the first half as quarterback Rob Elswick completed eight of 10 passes for 109 yards and two touchdowns. One of the TD tosses went to Frank Niscorommi and the other was grabbed by Reggie Brandon.

The Twisters scored their third and final touchdown thanks to tailback Corey Davis, who reached paydirt after a slashing 14-yard run mid-way in the second quarter.

While the first half offensive display was taking place, the Twister defense was on top of its game. it forced three punts in addition to putting up an outstanding goal-line stand, stopping the Lions on a first and goal at the Twisters' five-yard line.

The first half closed with the Twisters enjoying a 19-0 lead.

The Twisters played an atypical second half. It didn't look like the same team that had shut out their rivals for two quarters and run up a 19-0 lead. Their offense not only failed to continue to build on their momentum, but the defense suddenly and unexpectedly collapsed.

The Lions came back and scored 22 unanswered points, spread over the two final quarters. They scored their first on a 28-yard sweep and, adding a two-point conversion, made it a 19-8 game midway in the third period.

Then, with eight minutes remaining in the contest the Lions struck again. But they opted to go for the two-point conversion and their attempt failed.. The score now turned into a nailbiting 19-14 for the Twisters.

With three minutes left in the game, the Lions struck the fatal blow. The Twisters were confronted with a fourth and four situation on their own 20 and they decided to solve the problem by punting. The Lions returned the punt 35 yards to the Twisters 25 and that return set up their third and deci-

It's a Westland sweep in Super Bowl

The Meteors and the Comets, the City of Westland's two representatives in the 2001 Western Suburban Junior Football League's Super Bowl, surfaced with titles in their respective divisions.

The Meteors edged the Plymouth Stars, 13-12, in the Junior Division to hand veteran Meteors' Coach Rick Foy his first victory Super Bowl championship in 26 years.

Although Foy's teams have made several previous Super Bowl appearances, it was the first time his Junior Varsity squad actually came away with a championship.

In the meantime, the Westland Varsity Comets' defense held a strong and prolific-scoring Belleville Cougars' offense scoreless, as the Comets posted an exciting 6-0 victory over their counterparts.

The Comets are coached by Eric Buchanan.

In the Freshman match up in the Super Bowl, Dearborn Heights' Redskins came away with a 14-0 victory over Lincoln's Railspitters.

All three Super Bowl games were played at Ann Arbor Pioneer High School on Sunday.

"There was a continuous flow of fans at these games," noted Keith DeMolay, a publicist for the Westland Little League football organization.

The three games marked the culmination of the 2001 Western Suburban Junior Football League.

All-Area Football coming up next

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

With Redford Catholic Central's victory over Westland John Glenn Friday night, the last of the area high school football teams has been eliminated from the Michigan High School Athletic Association's playoffs.

The stage has now been set for the Michigan Community Newspapers' annual All-Area Team.

The MCN's mythical team, as in the past, will consist of offensive and defensive teams. The MCN sports staff also will select a Coach of the Year.

The elite All-Area Team, picked by the MCN sports staff in cooperation with the local high school coaches, will be made up of the premier players drafted from the local schools:

Belleville, Romulus, Wayne Memorial, Westland John Glenn, Inkster, Dearborn Heights Robichaud, Plymouth-Canton and Plymouth-Salem.

As usual, there will also be an Honorable Mention list.

Fans who wish to participate in the selection process may do so by faxing the name, player's stats, position and school of their favorite candidate. The MCN fax number is 734-729-6088. Readers, or fans, who have any questions are urged to contact MCN staff writer Tom Mooradian who can be reached by dialing 734-729-4000. # Belleville favored to repeat as district champ

Wayne hosts district playoffs

Belleville may have given up its Mega-Red hoops throne to Inkster, but Coach Kevin Edwards' Tigers still has the team to beat at the Class A District Tournament hosted by Wayne Memorial this week.

The Tigers, winners of three consecutive district titles, and have made back-to-back appearances in the state quarterfinals began the defense of their district championship by taking on a so-so Livonia Franklin squad. The winner was to advance to meet John Glenn Wednesday night and the survivor in the semifinal will play for the championship at 7 p.m. on Friday. They'll have to await the outcome of the Romulus-Garden City-Wayne Memorial bracket to determine who their opponent will be.

Romulus is an outside favorite to reach the finals, having beaten both Garden City and Wayne Memorial (which drew a first-round bye in the district) last week.

In the meantime, the team that beat Belleville twice this year, Inkster, will make its bid for a Class C district title at Clarenceville High School where the No. 1 ranked team in the state, Detroit Benedictine stands between the Vikings and a district title.

Under second year coach Dave Mann, Inkster has won 40 consecutive games, including a Mega-Gold (2001) and a Mega-Red (2001) title.

Mann, who has coached at Bishop Borgess and also at Benedictine, says that both games will be tough ones for his ball club. The Vikings faced Borgess in the first round on Monday, and if the Vikings survive, they will meet the Ravens in the semifinals.

Injury-plagued Robichaud apparently is on the road to recovery. They will be traveling to Divine Child for its district appearance. Coach Warren Woods' Bulldogs were scheduled to meet the host, D. C., Wednesday night in the semifinal round. The Falcons are the defending champs and are overwhelming favorites to repeat.

Romulus finishes runner-up

Jumping out to a 20-7 lead in the first period, Romulus was forced to hang on as a rallying Wayne Memorial came back in the third period to make a game of it in their final meeting of the Mega Conference Blue Division game of the season.

Coach Rhonda McAllister's Eagles claimed a 54-42 victory over Coach Wayne Woodard's Eagles.

The victory lifted Romulus' divisional record to 8-4 and a second-place finish in their division.

On Thursday, the Eagles wrapped up the conference season with a crossover victory over Garden City, 54-45.

McAllister, in her first year as the Eagles' head coach, said that she is pleased with her team's performance in their division and throughout most of the 2001 campaign.

"It proved that we can be competitive in the Blue Division," McAllister said. "The two victories last week, over Wayne Memorial and Garden City, showed that we can play with just about any team in the area."

Romulus bolted to a 13-point lead over the visiting Zebras as Patrice Beasley drilled 10 of her game high 17 points in the opening frame. The Eagles didn't relinquish the lead, but Wayne managed to cut the deficit to eight points midway in the third period.

Joining Beasley in the double-figure scoring column was Tiffany Ash who scored 16 points and grabbed nine rebounds for the winners.

Wayne's top scorer was Renita Price who tossed in 10 points.

McAllister abandoned the man-to-man defense against Garden City in the second half after trailing 19-8 for one and 25-22 at the intermission.

"We pressed them most of the second half. We were able to make our points off the transition," said the Romulus coach.

Ash tossed in seven of her 20 points and Beasley also scored seven of a career high 24 points in the second period to lift Ro-

Robichaud upsets champs

With 5-7 sophomore guard Mary Riley in the lineup, Robichaud can compete with the best in their conference.

Just ask Dearborn Heights Crestwood, which finished the 2001 Mega-Gold season with a share of the divisional title. Riley pumped in a team high 19 points against the Chargers to lead Robichaud to an impressive 52-44 upset over their cross-town rivals.

"If we had had Riley in our line-up at the beginning of the season, I can only speculate about where this team would be today," said Robichaud coach Warren Woods. "She's just a natural leader and player."

Riley was sidelined with a leg injury for most of the 2001 season. She joined the Bulldogs earlier this month.

Robichaud had a slim 14-13 edge over the Chargers and managed to increase the margin to 31-24 at half-time. Riley and Lauren Trammell each scored five as the Bulldogs widened the gap to seven points, 31-24, at the half. Robichaud came back and outscored their hosts 9-3 in the third period and held a 40-27 lead entering the fourth period. Crestwood never challenged down the stretch.

Riley scored 19 points and Trammell contributed 12 in the victory.

Crestwood got a game high 23 points from Kristen Buchanan. The Chargers also made good on eight of their 10 free throws, while Robichaud sank seven of 15.

Robichaud came within seven seconds of their second consecutive win as River Rouge's Ashley McDowell scored the decisive free throw to break a 52-all tie that clinched it for the Panthers.

It was Riley again who came alive in the fourth quarter that made it an interesting game.

Robichaud was up 9-7 after the first period and led 20-14 at the half before McDowell led a Panther rally that lifted them to a 37-26 advantage for three periods.

Ceckiewicz completed 12 of 24 passes for a total of 162 yards and three touchdowns. Three of those completions were by Peiffer who had a touchdown and 93 yards.

The loss brought the 2001 season to a sudden end for the Rockets and Coach Gordon. They finished the season with a 9-3 record and the Western Lakes, Lakes Division title and a District championship.

sive touchdown. The champs executed a 25-yard pass play that ended in the Twisters' end zone, and they came back with the two-point conversion to ice the victory.

The Twisters' last chance was foiled in their final series when Elswick's pass was picked off and the Lions took possession of the ball at midfield and ran out the clock.

"There's is nothing that can be said except our guys played their hearts out, and we came up on the short end," said Brothers after the game. "The Lions can't be sold short. They are a great team with outstanding athletes and this in itself is a compliment to our Twister squad.

"This season is now over and we look forward to 2002," Brothers added. "But before we leave the scene, I would like to thank the Twister board, the coaching staff, and each and every member of the team for an outstanding season. We also extend our sincere appreciation to our loyal fans, sponsors and especially to the local newspaper for their outstanding coverage of our games."

Brothers also had some kind words for the Willow Run Community School system and its board of education for allowing the Twisters the use of the football field.

"She didn't make any three-pointers," noted Woods. "Mary made five from the field and also sank eight free throws. It was amazing performance."

Trammell added 11 points and Dinita Fizer also scored 10 for the Bulldogs who finished the Mega-Gold with a 3-9 record and the overall season with a 4-15 mark.

"If we can beat Crestwood, we can beat anyone," said Coach Woods as he prepared to meet Divine Child in the semifinal round of the Class B district playoffs hosted by D. C.
